

Otago Art Society's Dunedin Fringe Festival

Exhibition: The Nude

22nd March to 13th April 2019

The Otago Art Society Otago is excited to call for entries for our themed exhibition for the 2019 Dunedin Fringe Festival. This event is open to all OAS Members and any other interested artists.

Nudes in art can be dated back to 30 – 25,000 BC with the Willendorf Venus. A tiny statuette, depicting a corpulent female and assumed to have been used as a fertility symbol of some kind. From Ancient Greece to present day, the human body has held a place within the in art, predominantly in Western Art.

Despite this long and beautiful history, nudes are not common within the OAS's scheduled shows. We hope to present a diverse range of works in a multitude of mediums. From the traditional to the experimental, the coy to the confronting, the innocent to the erotic. The exhibition is open to any interested artist, both professional and amateur, of all ages.

Part of the proceeds from this exhibition will be donated toward Bowel Cancer Research.

The Otago Art Society is on the first floor of the Dunedin Railway Station, 22 Anzac Avenue, Dunedin. Phone 03 4779465 or email otagoartsociety@xtra.co.nz.
